UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — President Johnson, making a surprise appearance before the United Nations General Assembly Wednesday, pledged that the United States will press all efforts to end the nuclear arms race.

The President delivered a U.S. plea for action on disarmament minutes after the 124-nation Assembly endorsed by an overwhelming majority the U.S.-Soviet draft treaty to ban the spread of nuclear weapons.

He called the assembly action "the most important international agreement in the field of disarmament since the nuclear age began" at the end of World War II.

Then, looking forward to future disarmament progress, the President pledged that the United States shall "as a major nuclear weapon power, promptly and vigorously pursue negotiations on effective measures to halt the nuclear arms race and (Continued on Back Page, Col. 1)

PanAm Jet Goes Down In Calcutta

NEW YORK (UPI)—A Pan American Airways jetliner with 63 persons aboard crashed early Thursday on its approach to Dum Dum airport in Calcutta, India, the airline reported Wednesday.

A Pan American spokesman said 53 passengers, including five company employees, and a crew of 10 were aboard the Boeing 707 321C four-jet aircraft.

The spokesman said information was sketchy but first reports from the scene indicated that most, and perhaps all, escaped death.

The airliner, which left Los Angeles Tuesday on a round-the-world-flight, crashed at 1:28 a.m. Thursday.

The airliner, Flight No. 1, made stops at Honolulu, Tokyo, Hong Kong and Bangkok. It was to stop at Calcutta, Karachi, Beirut, Istanbul, Frankfurt, London and New York.

Johnson Ups Pay For GIs, Civilians

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson ordered pay increases Tuesday, totaling $1.6 billion and averaging about 5 per cent, for more than two million federal civilian employees and more than three million members of the armed forces.

The boosts will take effect with the first pay period beginning on or after July 1.

The raises were provided under a law Congress passed last year but there had been some chance they would be headed off by economy moves.

Reds Lighter By 1 Man

HUE, Vietnam (Special) — A paratrooper from the 101st Airborne Div. searching a swamp for his cigarette lighter outside an enemy-held village near here brought to light more than expected.

"I was preparing to smoke when I realized I had dropped my lighter," said Spec. 4 Frank McEntee, of Philadelphia.

McEntee, of C Co., 2nd Bn. (Abn.), 501st Inf., started backtracking through a swamp, kicking water lilies in disgust, when suddenly the brackish muck erupted under his feet.

A North Vietnamese soldier holding a reed in his mouth emerged with his hands in the air. The water-soaked Communist had been trying to flee his unit's doomed stronghold.

France Bans Demonstrations, Orders Extremists to Disband

PARIS (AP) — President Charles de Gaulle's government Wednesday ordered seven extremist student groups dissolved and banned all demonstrations throughout France in a bid to halt the bloody rioting that has shaken the nation.

Four student organizations in Paris canceled a demonstration planned for Wednesday night, apparently indicating the firm action might succeed in restoring a measure of order after nearly six weeks of turmoil.

The ban on all public demonstrations was announced after a cabinet meeting at the Elysee Palace, De Gaulle's home. It is to remain in effect until the end of the campaign for legislative elections June 23 and 30.

Previous efforts to outlaw demonstrations had failed.

The new ban does not affect electoral meetings, however, provided they are held indoors.

Students in Bordeaux and Strasbourg announced cancellation of public demonstrations but others in Marseille and Caen voted to go ahead despite the ban.

In Caen, about 800 students paraded through town shouting insults at De Gaulle. Police made no move to intervene. The demonstrators finally dispersed without incident.

In Marseille, more than 1,000 students marched carrying banners inscribed "De Gaulle assassin" but here also police made no move to intervene.

The seven extreme leftist groups ordered dissolved included the March 22 Movement, radical student group headed by Daniel Cohn-Bendit.

The other groups were: the Marxist-Leninist Union of Communist Youth, the Federation of Revolutionary Students, the Liaison Committee of Revolutionary Students, the Communist Revolutionary Youths, the Group of the Revolt, and the Workers Voice, a Maoist labor group.

Minister of Information Yves Guena said violation of the government decision to ban the groups provides prison sentences (Continued on Back Page, Col. 3)

Red Shelling of Saigon Claims 1st U.S. Victim

SAIGON (UPI)—A U.S. airman diving for a bunker during a rocket attack on Saigon's Tan Son Nhut AB Wednesday became the first American to die in the current wave of Viet Cong terror shelling.

Four Vietnamese children were also killed in the bombardment, the 12th to hit the capital city in as many days, and 28 persons were wounded, including 24 Vietnamese and two American civilians and two U.S. servicemen.

The Communists fired a total of 14 powerful 122mm rockets into the Air Base operated jointly by the United States and South Vietnam on the northern outskirts of the city.

The Soviet-made rockets began crashing into the sprawling base a few minutes after 3 a.m. They also struck the flight line where at least three U.S. aircraft were reported damaged.

It was the first time since the continuous nightly shelling began June 1 that an American was killed. During one of the earlier attacks, two U.S. Military Policemen were wounded.

In related developments: —North Vietnam Wednesday gave its approval of the shelling and hinted they would continue. A Radio Hanoi broadcast monitored here said:

"The liberation forces continued shelling into Saigon with their wonderful accuracy rate which have caused a terrific panic in the enemy."

The shells, in fact, were reportedly being fired at random, a factor reflected in the casualty lists since nearly all of the scores of persons killed and wounded have been Vietnamese civilians.

Indicating the shelling would continue, the broadcast said: "This is the fire of the new period, the period for continuous offensive attacks, or overall uprisings of the heroic people in the south."

—Saigon's new mayor, Col. Do Kien Nhiue, said that measures would soon be taken to

"Check Communist attempts to attack and shell into the capital."

The street fighting in the Cholon section of the city ended late Tuesday night when National Police gunned down a woman and two men, last survivors of a Viet Cong battalion. One policeman was killed and two were wounded in the closing battle as police besieged the rubble of a burned out hotel in which the trio had been hiding for some 36 hours.

The area, a Chinese quarter of Saigon, sprang back to life Wednesday. A number of shops reopened for business and the street lights along the outskirts of the district began working.

Official U.S. indignation was aired by State Department Press Officer Robert J. McCloskey following a call late Tuesday on Secretary of State Dean Rusk by South Vietnam Ambassador But Dlem.

McCloskey said Rusk had assured the South Vietnam Ambassador "The United States fully shares the concern of his government about these outrageous attacks against the civilian population in Saigon."

LBJ Picks Peers To Head I Corps

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson announced Wednesday a new commanding general to take over later this year as head of the coordinated command recently established for Army and Marine units serving in the northern section of Vietnam (I Corps).

He is Maj. Gen. William R. Peers, 54, who has been the deputy commander of the field forces in Vietnam since February. In his new post, Johnson named Peers to be promoted to lieutenant general.

The command, known as Provisional Corps, was established several months ago. It is headed now by Lt. Gen. William B. Rosson and was formally established by the President in the White House announcement.

There was no date specifically announced for the shift in command. Rosson is to take over a new job as director of the organization of the Joint Chiefs of Staff in Washington. But the changeover time has been set only as "later this year."

Marines Drive Off Red Attack

SAIGON—U.S. Marines near Khe Sanh held off a powerful enemy night attack Tuesday, suffering 180 casualties.

Portions of the 2nd and 3rd Marine Regts. came under attack after a day of patrolling.

The attack began about 3 a.m. with a barrage of mortar fire and rocket grenades while heavy small arms fire streamed through the Marine camp. Leathernecks cut down a large number of suicide attacks by communist troops carrying satchel of explosives to blast apart the American defenses.

Over 50 enemy 82mm mortar rounds hit the Marines while American artillery, helicopter gunship and fighter-bomber fire tore into the enemy.

The Reds withdrew at about 4:30 a.m. leaving 24 bodies on the battlefield. The Marines lost 14 killed and 115 wounded.

Later Tuesday morning ARVN troops of the 2d Inf. Regt. battled a large enemy force just a mile from the outskirts of Gio Linh. The Vietnamese soldiers reported killing 93 enemy soldiers and capturing 14 weapons.

Troops Aid Refugees

SAIGON (IO) — The 9th Inf. Div. has donated 7 tons of food to assist refugees in Cholon, the war ravaged Chinese sector of Saigon. The distribution also included soap and insecticide.

Ky Quits Defense Position

SAIGON (AP) — Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky resigned Wednesday as head of South Vietnam's People's Self-Defense Committee, further evidence of his almost complete withdrawal from government affairs.

A letter of resignation to President Nguyen Van Thieu came after a week in which Ky has not participated in any government activities and has remained in seclusion at the seaside town of Nha Trang.

He returned to Saigon briefly Tuesday to say goodby to Gen. William C. Westmoreland but then returned to Nha Trang.

Ky was appointed head of the committee on May 3.

In the past week, Thieu has steadily increased his own control of the government at the expense of Ky. One after another, Thieu has replaced high-ranking officials loyal to Ky with men loyal to himself.

The diminution of Ky's power base means that he retains only those duties relegated to the vice president by the constitution—almost a ceremonial post.

Special Reason Forces Him Back to Viet

EDWARDSVILLE, Ill. (UPI) — Army Sgt. James Hasse is going back to Vietnam in the interest of love, not war.

Hasse, 21, who wears the Green Beret of the Special Forces, is spending a 30-day leave here after completing his Vietnam tour.

But Hasse plans to go right back to Vietnam — his fiancee is there.

Hasse's bride-to-be is 2nd Lt. Barbara Blair, his hometown sweetheart who is now an Army nurse at the hospital at Nha Trang.

"Barbara's orders to go to Vietnam caused us to postpone the first date we had set for the wedding," Hasse said. "The wedding was originally set for Aug. 24, but Barbara got her orders for Vietnam in February."

Both plan to leave Vietnam next March, and the wedding is now scheduled for April. Both will be discharged from service the following August.

The couple was engaged last September when Jim was in Vietnam, and Barbara was about to report to the Valley Forge Army Hospital in Pennsylvania.

"I mailed her the engagement ring," Hasse said. "I had told her to expect a surprise."

While stationed at the Special Forces camp in Nha Trang, he saw Barbara every day. He saw her several times a day during a three-week period when he was confined to the hospital with an ailment.

Hasse met Barbara when she was a nursing student at St. Joseph's Hospital in nearby Alton, Ill., and he was a student at Southern Illinois University's Edwardsville campus.

173rd Airborne Makes Mark in Vietnam

USA Photos

BONG SON, Vietnam (Special)—Five years ago Saturday the 173rd Airborne Brigade was activated on Okinawa as a quick strike guerrilla warfare reaction force.

Few units in the history of the American fighting man have been so successful in meeting their mission requirements.

Deployed as the first U.S. Army ground combat unit to Vietnam in May 1965, the paratroopers have been the most mobile strike force in Vietnam and have built an enviable reputation.

From the jungles of the Iron Triangle to Hill 875 at Dak To, the 173rd had played the role as troubleshooter in the II and III Tactical Zones. They have participated in 64 different combat operations, they have been heavily involved in civic action programs, and have the only combat parachute assault in the war. Four Sky Soldiers have been awarded the Medal of Honor and the Brigade's 2d Battalion, 503d Infantry has received the Presidential Unit Citation.

Currently the brigade is deployed in three areas of operation along South Vietnam's north central coast under the command of Brig. Gen. Richard J. Allen.

Harriman Protests Red Shelling of Saigon

PARIS (AP)—The United States protested to North Vietnam in the Paris peace talks Wednesday against "particularly vicious rocket attacks" on the heavily populated center of Saigon.

Ambassador W. Averell Harriman told the North Vietnamese that the U.S. had reports that "the current offensive was planned and directed by North Vietnamese generals." He said this information came to the U.S. government from high-ranking defectors.

"Today," Harriman said, "I want to be sure you understand that this is a situation which could have the most serious consequences for these talks."

Harriman said bombardments of Saigon have been carried out "using the North Vietnamese rockets and mortars."

"Most importantly, the attacks have relied heavily upon North Vietnamese Army troops," he said, "and they are sustained by a swelling flow of men and materiel from North Vietnam."

"The troops attacking in and around Saigon are under orders to infiltrate into the city, to seize civilian homes, and to dig in. Thus, the battlefield has been moved into the densely populated quarters of the capital and suburban areas, with resulting heavy civilian casualties."

"The attacking units have been sacrificed. Since the beginning of May, more than 10,000 North Vietnamese soldiers and Viet Cong have been killed in the capital or in its approaches."

Harriman accused the North Vietnamese of intensifying the war and said:

"We have been unable to detect any sign of any restraint on North Vietnam's part.

"This intensification by North Vietnam creates serious doubts that completely stopping the bombing of the North would evoke acts of good faith on the North Vietnamese side."

Later in his statement Harriman said, "If our restraint continues to be met with escalation, inflexibility, bellicose statements and evasions, one cannot make progress toward an honorable peace. We are patient, but we must be firm when the lives of our troops and those of allies are at stake."

Harriman spoke first at Wednesday's meeting. Xuan Thuy followed with a new plea for the United States to stop the rest of the bombing and "all other acts of war" against North Vietnam promptly.

Referring to a Harriman statement a week ago that the U.S. would lift the bombing at the appropriate time, Thuy said:

"What time, what circumstances are more appropriate than the present when official conversations between the governments of the Democratic Republic of Vietnam and the United States have lasted nearly a month?"

"If these official conversations continue not to progress, the American side must assume the full and entire responsibility for this."

The meeting Wednesday lasted 3 hours and 50 minutes and ended with an agreement to hold the ninth session of the talks—now a month old—next Wednesday. This was the second week-long recess.

NRA Protests

Post Office Orders Firearms Labeled

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Post Office Wednesday ruled that all guns shipped parcel post must be labeled "firearms" and said they would not be delivered until the addressee's police chief was notified.

Postmaster General W. Marvin Watson issued the directive as the Senate received bills to ban all mail order sales of shotguns and rifles and to register all guns and license every gunowner in the United States.

Harold W. Glassen, president of the million-member National Rifle Association, said that as a lawyer he considered Watson's order unconstitutional.

He also said bills to register guns and license owners corroborated the NRA's long-held belief that proponents of tight gun control seek ultimately to confiscate all privately-owned firearms.

Watson, speaking to the National Press Club, said that, effective immediately, "firearms shipped through the mails must be clearly labeled with the word 'firearms.' If the shipment is not so labeled, it will not be accepted in the mails."

A Post Office Department spokesman pointed out, however, that the government had no enforcement powers and if a mailer did not label the package there was nothing the department could do about it.

Watson also "ordered that all postmasters shall not make delivery of any firearm without first notifying the chief law enforcement official of the community that delivery of a firearm is to be made."

Present law prohibits pistols and revolvers from being shipped through the mails—they must be shipped via express.

Watson also ruled sawed-off rifles and shotguns as nonmailable. He said a long gun must be at least 26 inches in overall length to be accepted by parcel post, and ruled out any weapon "that retains the characteristics of a concealable weapon."

Glassen said "no such authority exists" permitting Watson to withhold delivery until police are notified. He said most states have no laws regarding sales of rifles and shotguns, and would thus be powerless to act even if they considered the recipient unqualified for gun ownership.

A Chaplain At Heart

FT. MONMOUTH, N.J. (UPI) — Archbishop Terence J. Cooke, making his debut as vicar of the U.S. armed forces, says he would "rather stay on as military vicar" if he had to choose between his military role and that of archbishop of New York.

In his first visit to a major military installation, he told some 600 soldiers Tuesday he is "a pastor and a chaplain at heart."

Archbishop Cooke assumed his role as vicar from the late Cardinal Spellman, whom Cooke replaced as head of the New York archdiocese.

He told faculty and students of the U.S. Army signal school that he wants to "go wherever the troops are in the world." And though he did not mention Vietnam by name, he hinted of plans to be there next Christmas.

French Crackdown

The toll in Tuesday's violence continued to mount with late reports.

In Paris, 194 persons were reported treated for injuries, 93 of them requiring hospitalization.

The minister told newsmen all demonstrations will be "pitilessly dispersed."

It was not made clear whether this might mean the use of troops. Police measures have not proved entirely effective.

So far authorities have attempted, with only partial success, to control riots with tear gas and concussion grenades, water cannon, and charges by helmeted, club swinging riot police. They have not used firearms.

Police have arrested hundreds of demonstrators and carted them off for identity checks. None of this has proved effective. For almost 12 hours Tuesday night and early Wednesday, students ranged through a broad strip of central Paris, hurling paving blocks and Molotov cocktails at police and building scores of barricades.

The government action Wednesday was short of formal emergency or state-of-siege measures which have reportedly been under preparation for several weeks. Lying just outside Paris are heavy military forces with armored cars and tanks.

Jetliner Safe After Collision

DENVER (AP) — A United Air Lines Boeing 727 jet transport and a light plane operated by a Denver radio station brushed each other in the air today.

Spokesmen for United and the radio station gave these details:

There were no injuries and both planes were able to land safely at Stapleton International Airport at Denver.

The airliner sustained slight damage to the covering of a flap and the light aircraft was damaged on one wing. It was piloted by Don Martin, news director at Station KIMM, who was observing traffic conditions.

The near disaster occurred between 9,000 and 9,500 feet about 15 miles north of Denver. The airliner carried 57 passengers and a crew of six on a flight from Salt Lake City to Washington with a stop at Denver.

It was piloted by Capt. A. L. Buff of Washington.

Washington-bound passengers were transferred to another jet which took off from Denver after a short delay.

They're Probably Teed Off by Now

WALLSEND, England (UPI) — Ninety-five enthusiasts who paid their membership fee 27 years ago to the Wallsend Golf Club may soon be able to play on the club course.

The local council has finally found a site for the course, but the club secretary wondered how many of the original members still play golf. He himself has since taken up bowling.

LBJ Vows N-Ban Action

Specifically, the President pledged that the United States would begin "early discussions on the limitation of strategic offensive and defensive nuclear weapons systems."

His prepared text had said this would take place at the 17-nation disarmament talks in Geneva but this part was left out of his actual speech. There was no immediate explanation for the omission.

It was in Geneva that the U.S.-Soviet nuclear treaty was worked out in months of negotiations.

Britain took part in the treaty drafting, and joined the United States and the Soviet Union in urging its endorsement by the United Nations.

France, also a nuclear power, stayed aloof from the Geneva talks and abstained from voting on the resolution commending the treaty. Red China, the fifth nuclear power but not represented here, has assailed the treaty as a U.S.-Soviet plot aimed at establishing a nuclear monopoly.

The vote on the resolution was 95-to-4 with 21 abstentions. The votes against were cast by Albania, Cuba, Tanzania and Zambia. Among the abstainers was India, which has expressed concern over Red China's nuclear arsenal.

Speaking later in the Assembly, Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Vasily V. Kuznetsov called endorsement of the treaty "a major step towards the lessening of the threat of devastating nuclear war and the achievement of a more secure and reliable peace."

Lord Caradon, chief British delegate, said, "We rejoice in the birth of a treaty."

The Assembly recessed while Johnson met with heads of delegations in the Indonesian lounge at the conclusion of his speech.

Under prevailing tight security, there was little advance notice that Johnson would come to the United Nations.
